DAUGHTER LOSES FIGHT TO BREAK MRS. M'COY'S WILL

Mother Cuts Off Three of Five Children From $6000 Estate for Alleged Disre-street, 52700.

Letters were granted in the intestate estate of Mary E. Byrnes, who died in the De Lancey Hospital, leaving $12,000.
Abraham Tandler, Brantwood, Pa., 57000; Linda E. Lewis, 1436 North 12th street, 43361. Personal property of Sarah Greely has been appraised at $2350.78.

CORNERSTONE LAYING AT GERMANTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

Dr. Brumbaugh Principal Speaker. Chorus Singing a Feature of Event. The cornerstone of the new Germantown High School, at Germantown avenue and High street, will be laid this afternoon at I o'clock with Dr. Martin

G. Brumbaugh as the principal speaker.

The Rev. Charles Wesley Burns, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, will open the ceremonies with an in-

Sacrifice, for Spot Cash.

and Roadsters-Which Was Canceled

on Account of the War-at a Great

The school song of the Germantown District High School for girls will be sung by a chorus made up of the pupils, and another chorus of boys from the district high school will follow. Ad-

Tilden, of the Board of Education, Bayard Henry, former State Senator and representatives of the district high schools.

Dr. N. H. Keyger has selected the list of historical books on Germantown and daily papers and has prepared a list of the names of pupils to be piaced in the cornerstone. The program has been arranged by George P. Darrow, widely known in Germantown business circles, in co-operation with instructors of the district high schools.

and a record turnout is expected, Ger-mantown has been looking forward for years to the new High School.

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

spectful Treatment.

Today's Marriage Licenses

John S. Mayer, 4024 Woodland ave., and Flora Grove, 4024 Woodland ave., and Isabelle Cleary, 2407 Oxford st.,

The contested will of Margaret McCoy was admitted to probate today by Reglister of Wills Sheehan, who dismissed the caveat of Margaret McCaffrey, a daughter, ignored in the will.

Mrs. McCoy died in St. Mary's Hospital Canuary 5, 1913. She directed in the will, executed November 27, 1912, that her 5000

Today's Marriage Licenses

John S. Mayer, 4024 Woodland ave., and Isabelle Cleary, 2407 Oxford st., and Isabelle Cleary, 2407 Oxford st., and Isabelle Cleary, 2407 (Refmantown ave., and Mary Kenney, 1220 Airdrie st.
Sample Drelleh, 921 N. Randolph st., and Ethia Hoover, 1720 N. Willington st.
Blina Hoover, 1720 N. Willington st.
Lillian M. Hangley, 3000 Glarien st.
Lillian M. Hangley, 3000 Glarien st.
Charles H. Nousmaker, Jr., 5220 Parkside ave. and Mary F. Noble, 5220 Parkside ave.
Charles L. Holland, 1924 St. Parkside
ave.
Charles L. Holland, 1925 N. Palson at any greatest church demonstration held in

Charles H. Novamaker, 3F. Novamaker, 3F. Novamaker, and Mary F. Novamaker, 3F. Novamaker, and Mary F. Novamaker, 3F. Novamaker, 2F. Novamaker

ADMITS HE ROBBED GARAGE

Admitting the theft of automobile accessories while employed as a helper in a garage, Clarence Fleming, a Negro, 2112 Bolton street, was held in $600 ball for a further hearing, on October 2, by Magistrate Morris this morning.

While, Infractor harte, of the Department while, the entry of the Department while, the entry of the Department while. Infractor harte, of the Department while, in the control of Health, as the representative of Mayor Blankenburg, spoke briefly to the young courses and then sent them away, each with the Mayor's peace message tightly clusted automobiles were waiting for the messengers and the reviewing party. M. P. Sticker, who owns the garage at 1928 North 20th street, testified that Flening systematically robbed him of Streeker and some of his aides, the 16

The Most Phenomenal Purchase Ever Made!

The Entire Export Order of Half Milli on Dollars' Worth of 1915 Touring Cars

Buy Your Auto from the Ledger Classified Columns

You'll get a good car at a small price. Fine opportunities in autos of all descriptions every day-from roadsters to 7-passenger tourers-from gas and electric pleasure cars to business deliveries and trucks. Watch Ledger ads—use the Ledger when

THIS IS THE CAR

SUNDAY SCHOOL IN BIG PARADE MAKE GREAT PEACE PLEA

All societies in Germantown have been Sixteen Girls Bearing Golden Crosses Act as Mayor's Messengers in Demonstra-

ried a beautiful American flag, and the buy was followed by the 10 small girls, who unfuried their banners of gold and white Director Harte, of the Department machines carried the girls down Broad street to Rither and then the party countermarched and continued up Broad street as far as Hunting Park avenue.

As it passed northward on both sides there were thousands of men, women and children, all of them carrying flags and banners, and the cheerful words of "Onward, Christian Soldiers," were spread on the breeze from tens of thousands of voices.

THE MAYOR'S MESSAGE. The message from Mayor Blankenburg

"To the Sunday School Scholars, Teachers and Officers of Philadelphia: "As Mayor of the City of Brotherly Love-the city of William Penn, founded with his message of peace—it is gratifying, indeed, particularly at this time, to find you expressing throughout the city, in your parades, assemblies and reviews, good will towards all in our land and prayers for peace among

May every one of your schools have the richest blessings of divine love. May you prove a power for good in the present older and the rising young generation of Philadelphians,

"As you march through out streets loyal to your country and to your Master, may you truly be 'keeping step with God's truth,' and may you show your affection for your fellows in your love for the "Prince of Peace."

"Ever faithfully yours," RUDOLPH BLANKENBURG,

BROAD STREET REVIEW. All the division demonstrations, with Frankford, Germantown and West Philawere either marching or standing at atreview parties, arrived. The machines with the child peace messengers stopped at each district's waiting place, and the messages were received amid cheers and

The other district celebrations were sent the Mayor's greeting also by the couriers in machines, so that it was read before all of the 100,000 and more persons who assembled at the sectional meetings, at which there were programs of singing and prominent clergymen and laymen made addresses, 150 BANDS PLAY.

organizations with them, so that patriotic music was played in every section of the city by almost 150 bands. And all along the lines the marchers joined in linging the oldtime hymns, and such stir-ing songs as "America" and "My Coun-'Tis of Thee" were heard every-streets and watched the Christian marchers as they passed, and cheer upon cheer went up from their threats and urged the Sabbath school workers on their mission of peace.

Among the prominent persons who attended the meeting at the Chambers attended the meeting at the Chambers-Wylle Church and who reviewed the parade were the Rev. Russell H. Conwell, the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, John Wana-maker, Dr. George W. Bailey, Director George D Porter, Dr. Frank W. Lange, George H. Streaker, John Baker Tuttle, George G. Zlegler, John S. Klenk, John M. Doran, William H. Emhardt, Charles Blabor, George H. Chew, John M. Neff,

M. Doran, William H. Emhardt, Charles Rishoff, George H Chew, John M. Neff, Henry G. Talmadge, Charles Frankenberger, city officials and Rear Admiral Caperton, of the navy yard.

The representatives of the committee in the various districts were Walter W. Allison, Albert Chance, N. K. Fegley, Charles H. Leidig, J. Leroy Carroll, John Baker Tuttle, Eugene J. Moyer, Arthur Smith, H. L. Wynne, Robert M. Gunn, George H Paul, John E. Cunnane, Joseph Crawford, George W. Campbell, Edward Post, Samuel A. Diller, R. C. Kremer, J. Lester Copeland, W. S. Montgomery and Henry C. Albin. and Henry C. Albin.

UNVEIL TABLET OF GEN. WAY

Historical Society of Ccester County Participates in Celebration.

WEST CHESTER, Sept. 26,-The seventh annual historic commemoration of the Chester County Historical Society, assisted by members of the Delaware County organization, took place this afthe exception of those in Kensington, termoon at "Waynesboro," the Wayne homestead, occupied by William Wayne, handsome bronze tablet dedicated to Genand dedicated with appropriate ceremonics in the presence of a large crowd. Company I, Sixth Regiment, N. G. P., of this place, was present.

The society erected many markers during the last seven years, notably on the Brandywine battlefield, near here; at Valley Forge, Paoli and other historic spots. Colonel Aso Bird Gardiner, of Rhode Island, secretary-general of the Society of the Cincinnati, of which General Wayne Each of the district columns was General W. W. Whitherspoon, chief of headed by a band, and the divisions and staff of the United States army, was many of the schools also had musical present as personal representative of President Wilson. Students of the public schools led the singing and rendered a patriotic program.

Prof. G. Morris Philips, principal of the West Chester State Normal School and president of the Chester County Society, made the presentation address and Prof. John Russell Hayes, of Swarthmore Colwhere.

Thousands of visitors from all parts of Pennsylvania and New Jersey lined the in charge of the devotional exercises.

DELEGATES AT TROY CHEER BIG PROJECT

Applaud Secretary Daniels' Advocacy of Canals That Will Connect New England With Florida Peninsula.

TROY, N. Y., Sept. 25 .- A steamboat carrying the defegates to the seventh annual convention of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association, and their guests, arrived here shortly after 10 o'clock today. The party had been transferred in Albany, an hour before, from the steamer Berkshire to the smaller craft, which passed close to the river work being done in this section to enable the visitors to get a good look at the improvements.

the auspices of a committee of prominent citizens, the visitors proceeded in a body to the music hall, where the day's exerdelphia, marched into Broad street and near the scene of the Paoli massacre. A cises were opened with a brief address by Congressman J. Hampton Moore, of tention when the automobiles, bearing the eral "Mad" Anthony Wayne was unveiled Philadelphia, president of the associa-

Mayor Cornelius F. Burns, of Troy, delivered the address of welcome on behalf of the city. Lieutenant Governor Frank E. Howe, of Vermont, made the Secretary of the Navy Daniels again gave his approval to the waterways movement. He was applauded on being introduced by Mr. Moore, and when he gave emphasis to the need of inland waterways that will connect New Eng-land with the Florida peninsula, via canals in New Jersey, the Delaware River, the Delaware and Chesapeake Canal and through other inland streams in the South, he was loudly cheered.

The other speakers at the morning session were Congressman J. Charles Lin-thicum, of Maryland; Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson, of Alabama, and William S. Bennet, former Congressman from New York city. Franklin K. Lane Secretary of the Interior, and Speaker Champ Clark were also on the program for addresses, but were detained in Washington.
The afternoon program beginning at 2 o'clock, included a trip to Waterfeet under the guldance of the Troy Camittee for an inspection of the area flight of five concrete locks by which the barge canal ascends 169 feet to the Mohawk River. The afternoon exertism were held on the grounds adjoining those of George Clinton, Jr., great grandson of Governor Dewitt Clinton, founder of the Erie canal, who spoke briefly. There were speeches by Congressmen and the Mayors of several cities and guests. were speeches by Congressmen and the Mayors of several cities and guests. The delegation is due here at 6 o'clock this evening for the return trip to Albany, where they will be transferred to the Berkshire. Dinner will be served aboard the latter vessel, after which the western will be sleeted together. officers will be elected, together with the reading of annual reports. Mr. Benthe reading of the sension.

The Berkshire is scheduled to start from Albany to New York at 9 o'clock

25 CLAY MINERS ENTOMBED Several Badly Hurt When Dug Out

tonight and is due in the latter city 8:30 Sunday morning.

an Hour Later. KITTANNING, Pa., Sept. 28.-Twenty. five clay miners were entombed for more than an hour today at the mine of the Kittanning Brick and Fire lay ompany, near here, following a heavy fall of clay near the entrance.

Superintendent Earl Martin led a rescuing party and the workmen were dug Assembling in parade formation, under out, several badly hurt,

How many people think of painting their roofs and spouting before leaks are detected? As a matter of fact the painter should follow the tinsmith. Indeed, it is often economy to let the painter go ahead first. To day have Kuehnle inspect your roof, If it needs painting it needs

Painting and Decorating

Both Phones

Germany's Side of the War Question

In an authoritative document by noted statesmen, financiers, publicists and political leaders of the Fatherland, the German viewpoint of the circumstances leading up to the present war and why the Kaiser and the Reichstag were compelled, in self-defense, to enter into the conflict is given.

Here is a list of the men who acted as the committee and board of

HONORARY COMMITTEE

editors in preparing this document:

Ballin, Chairman of the Board Directors,
Hamburg-American Line.

Prince von Bulow, Hamburg.

Dr. Kaempf, President of the Reichstag, Berlin.

Prof. Dr. Eugen Kuhnemann, Breslau.

Dr. R. W. Drechsler, Director of the American Institute, Berlin. Dr. Dryander, Chief Court and Cathedral Preacher, Berlin.
Dr. Baron von der Goltz, General Field Marshal, Berlin.

Von Gwinner, Director of the German Bank, Prince Munster-Dernburg, Member of the Berlin. Prof. Dr. von Harnack, Berlin.
Prince von Hatzfeldt, Duke of Trachenberg.
Dr. Heineken, Director of the North German

Lloyd, Bremen. Prince Henckel von Donnersmarck,

Dr. Drechsler, Director of the American Institute, Berlin. Matthias Erzberger, Member of the Reichstag.

Paul Dehn, Author, Berlin.

Berlin. Prof. Dr. Francke, Berlin.

Franz von Mendelssohn, President of the Chamber of Commerce, Berlin.

Prof. Dr. Eugen Kuhnemann, Breslau.

ment of the Interior, Berlin.

Prof. Dr. Lamprecht, Leipsig.

House of Lords, Count von Oppersdorff, Member of the House of Lords and of the Reichstag, Berlin. Count von Posadowsky-Wehner. Walther Rathenau, Berlin. Viktor, Duke of Ratibor.

BOARD OF EDITORS

B. Huldermann, Director of the Hamburg-American Line, Hamburg.

D. Naumann, Member of the Reichstag, Berlin.

Count von Oppersdorff, Member of the Prussian House of Lords, Member of the Reichstag, Berlin.

Dr. Schmidt, Ministerial Director, Berlin, Prof. Dr. von Schmoller, Berlin. Count von Schwerin-Lowitz, President of the House of Deputies. Wilhelm von Siemens, Berlin.

Dr. Theodor Lewald, Director of the Depart-Friedrich, Prince of Solms-Baruth. Max Warburg, Hamburg. Siegfried Wagner, Bayreuth. Von Wilamowitz-Moellendorff, Berlin. Prof. Dr. Wundt, Leipsig. Madame Goldberger. Princess Henckel von Donnersmarck. Duchess von Ratibor. The Baroness Speck von Sternburg. Madame von Trott zu Solz.

> Dr. Ernst Jackh, Berlin. Count Reventlow, Author, Charlottenburg. Dr. Paul Rohrbach, Teacher in the Commercial High School, Berlin.
> Dr. Schacht, Director of the Dresden Bank,

This important statement will be printed in full, covering four entire pages, together with a splendid large portrait of the Kaiser, in Sunday's

PUBLIC ELEDGER

September 27th

Order a copy from your dealer today

If we could advertise the manufac-turer's name we could demand a much higher price. The name plate of the manufacturer appears on the radiator. atalogue and Name triven on Request ectric Starter and Lights Center Control-114-inch Wheel Base 34x4 in, Tires Demonstable Rims Instrument Board Fully Equipped This Car is considered one of the best that's made and it $1500 is Regularly Selling for ALLIA, WEDN SD

HOW THE WAR WILL EFFECT 50-403 THE AMERICAN AUTOMO-BILE INDUSTRY INA AN AUTOMOBILE EXPERT)

Thousands of these Cars are now in use

The war has forced one of the world's most prom-nent automobile manufacturers to sell to us these note article) automobiles, which were ordered for The mere fact that the manufacturer does not allow The mere fact that the manufacturer dees not allow us to use his name in our advertisement ought not to stop you from knowing the Car-and by reading over the many exclusive features mentioned you should, without trauble, tell what make it is.

This Car has never before been sold for less than list brice which fact alone emphasizes the extraordinary feature of this sale.

This is the most phenomenal offer ever made to discriminating buxers—to think that a 1915 car of such sterling worth should be placed on sale at such a ridiculously low price is almost unbelievable, but we have the goods.

This offer will startle the motor world. Cars are now on our salesfloors, ready for immediate delivery. Make it your business to be among the first to make a selection.

The manufacturers of these cars are in a healthy financial condition, and will furnish parts at any time.

Gorson's Automobile Exchange 238-240 N. Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa.